I. INTRODUCTION

Hamilton County on-site fiscal monitoring visit was conducted on July 28, 2011. The fiscal monitor reviewed financial records to determine whether grant funds were spent in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Texas Indigent Defense Commission grant.

Hamilton County is located in Central Texas. Hamilton, the county seat, is 70 miles west of Waco and 100 miles northwest of Austin. The county has an estimated population of 8,523.

Hamilton County's court system is comprised of a county court and district court with criminal jurisdiction. The county court manages juvenile cases. In 2010, the county received $8,794 in formula grant funds. The county also collected $5,923 for reimbursement of attorney fees from defendants.

Commission Background

In January 2002, the 77th Texas Legislature established the Texas Indigent Defense Commission (Task Force). In May 2011, the 82nd Texas Legislature changed the name of the Texas Task Force on Indigent Defense (Task Force) to the Texas Indigent Defense Commission (Commission) effective September 1, 2011. The Commission remains a permanent standing committee of the Texas Judicial Council and administratively attached to the Office of Court Administration (OCA). The mission of the Commission is to improve the delivery of indigent defense services through fiscal assistance and professional support to State, local judicial, county, and municipal officials. The purpose of the Commission is to promote justice and fairness to all indigent persons accused of criminal conduct, including juvenile respondents, as provided by the laws and constitutions of the United States and Texas. As a result of the legislative requirement, the promulgated Section 173.401(a), Texas Administrative Code, which provides, “the Commission or its designees will monitor the activities of grantees as necessary to ensure that grant funds are used for authorized purposes in compliance with laws, regulations, and the provisions of the grant.”

Objectives

The objectives of this review were to:

- determine whether grant funds were used for authorized purposes in compliance with laws, regulations, and the provisions of the grant.
- validate policies and procedures relating to indigent defense services.
- provide recommendations pertaining to operational efficiency.
- assist with any questions or concerns on the indigent defense program requirements.

Scope

The county’s indigent defense expenditures were monitored to ensure compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and the provisions of the grant during fiscal year 2010. The fiscal monitor reviewed records located in the Hamilton County Courthouse Annex.

Methodology

To accomplish the objectives, the fiscal monitor met with county judge, district judge, and court administrators. The fiscal monitor reviewed:

- random samples of paid attorney fees, expert witnesses, licensed investigations, and other direct litigation for verification of expenses;
- general ledger transactions and invoices;
- indigent defense expenditure report and attorney fee schedule;
- public appointment list, attorney applications, and attorney criminal continuing legal education training; and
- county’s local indigent defense plan.

The expenditure period of October 1, 2009 to September 30, 2010 (FY 2010) was reviewed during the fiscal monitoring visit.

Hamilton County's Criminal Courts
Courts	Courts		Percent Sampled
	Total	Reviewed
County Court	1	1	100%
District Court	1	1	100%

Percent Sampled: courts reviewed / courts total

Summary of Findings

- The county did not have written accounting procedures to include staff responsibilities for processing indigent defense expenses.
- The county incorrectly placed 21 other direct litigation expenses ($1,229.09) in the attorney fee category of services.

II. INDIGENT DEFENSE GRANT

A. Formula Grant

The county submitted the FY 2010 indigent defense on-line grant application to assist in the provisions of the Fair Defense Act. Hamilton County met the formula grant eligibility requirements.

B. Indigent Defense Expenditure Report (IDER)

Under Section 79.036 of the Texas Government Code, counties are required to provide cases and expenditures for each court with criminal jurisdiction. For FY 2010, Hamilton County reported spending on attorney fees: $18,684 on 37 felony cases; $9,983 on 56 misdemeanor cases; $2,483 on 13 juvenile cases; and $3,349 on 2 felony appeal cases.

Monitor Comment

The county maintains fiscal accountability and support documents of formula grant and indigent defense expenditures. The annual indigent defense expenditure report is critical in establishing grant eligibility.

III. ACCOUNTING OPERATIONS

Accounting Procedures

The county did not have written accounting procedures to include staff responsibilities for processing indigent defense expenses.

Recommendation

The Commission recommends that the county develop and maintain indigent defense accounting procedures. The Uniform Grants Management Standards (UGMS) requires grantees financial systems to provide an “effective control and accountability of funds, property and assets...” (para 20, page 68). Written accounting procedures document knowledge of county’s internal controls and compliance with federal, state, local laws, and regulations.

Hamilton County Action Plan

Hamilton County process Indigent Defense claims under the written policy and procedures for accounts payable processing in general. Under recommendation from this finding, Hamilton County has established a written policy specific to Indigent Defense claims and has attached said policy.

IV. INDIGENT DEFENSE PAID VOUCHERS

A. Summary of Attorney Fee Payments

1. Fee Schedule

The attorney fee vouchers reviewed were paid in accordance with the fee schedule adopted by the formal action of the judges hearing criminal cases.

In FY 2010, the attorney fee annual payments ranged from $200 to $14,415 per attorney with an average of $4,845 and a median of $4,640.

2. Reviewed Assigned Counsel Fee Vouchers

A total of 108 paid attorney fee vouchers were reviewed for the period of October 1, 2009 to September 30, 2010. The attorney fee vouchers reviewed captured the specific data elements (defendant name, case/cause numbers, offense, court number, amount paid, attorney signature, and presiding judge signature).

Hamilton County Courts
6 Different Paid Attorneys
Courts	Total
	Paid Vouchers	Attorney Fee Vouchers
		Fees	Reviewed	Reviewed Value
County Court	69	$12,467	69	$12,467
District Court	39	$22,033	39	$22,033
Total	108	$34,500	108	$34,500

County Court = juvenile expenses + misdemeanor expense

$12,467 = $2,483 + $9,984

District Court = adult felony expenses + adult felony appeal expenses

$22,033 = $18,683 + $3,349

Monitor Comment

All attorney fee vouchers reviewed met the statutory requirements for payment, which states, “no payment shall be made until the form for itemizing the services performed is submitted to the judge presiding over the proceedings and approves the payment” in accordance with Article 26.05(c), Code of Criminal Procedure.

Hamilton County Response

Hamilton County concurs with this finding.

Recommendation

The Commission recommends that the county develop and implement internal procedures to identify, capture, and report other direct litigation expenses in the appropriate category of services pursuant to Section 79.036(e), Government Code. The correct classification of expenses is the precursor to accurate reporting under the Fair Defense Act. Please refer to Procedure Manual for the Indigent Defense Expenditure Report FY 2011, page 3-5 at: <http://www.txcourts.gov/tidc/pdf/FY11IDERManual.pdf>

Hamilton County Action Plan

Hamilton County has established an Indigent Defense claim process to properly code all claims through the accounts payable processing so that reporting requirement are met. Please refer to attached "Process for the Payment of Indigent Defense Expenditures."

each 12-month reporting period according to the county's local plan and Title 1, Chapter 174, Texas Administrative Code.

- (k) A court may replace an attorney who violates Subsection (j)(1) with other counsel. A majority of the judges of the county courts and statutory county courts or the district courts, as appropriate, trying criminal cases in the county may remove from consideration for appointment an attorney who intentionally or repeatedly violates Subsection (j)(1).
- (l) Procedures adopted under Subsection (a) must include procedures and financial standards for determining whether a defendant is indigent. The procedures and standards shall apply to each defendant in the county equally, regardless of whether the defendant is in custody or has been released on bail.
- (m) In determining whether a defendant is indigent, the court or the courts' designee may consider the defendant's income, source of income, assets, property owned, outstanding obligations, necessary expenses, the number and ages of dependents, and spousal income that is available to the defendant. The court or the courts' designee may not consider whether the defendant has posted or is capable of posting bail, except to the extent that it reflects the defendant's financial circumstances as measured by the considerations listed in this subsection.
- (n) A defendant who requests a determination of indigency and appointment of counsel shall:
- (1) complete under oath a questionnaire concerning his financial resources;
 - (2) respond under oath to an examination regarding his financial resources by the judge or magistrate responsible for determining whether the defendant is indigent; or
 - (3) complete the questionnaire and respond to examination by the judge or magistrate.
- (o) Before making a determination of whether a defendant is indigent, the court shall request the defendant to sign under oath a statement substantially in the following form: "On this _____ day of _____, 20 ____, I have been advised by the (name of the court) Court of my right to representation by counsel in connection with the charge pending against me. I certify that I am without means to employ counsel of my own choosing and I hereby request the court to appoint counsel for me. (signature of the defendant)"
- (p) A defendant who is determined by the court to be indigent is presumed to remain indigent for the remainder of the proceedings in the case unless a material change in the defendant's financial circumstances occurs. If there is a material change in financial circumstances after a determination of indigency or non-indigency is made, the defendant, the defendant's counsel, or the attorney representing the state may move for reconsideration of the determination.
- (q) A written or oral statement elicited under this article or evidence derived from the statement may not be used for any purpose, except to determine the defendant's indigency or to impeach the direct testimony of the defendant. This subsection does not prohibit prosecution of the defendant under Chapter 37, Penal Code.
- (r) A court may not threaten to arrest or incarcerate a person solely because the person requests the assistance of counsel.

Art. 26.05. Compensation of Counsel Appointed to Defend

(a) A counsel, other than an attorney with a public defender's office or an attorney employed by the office of capital writs, appointed to represent a defendant in a criminal proceeding, including a habeas corpus hearing, shall be paid a reasonable attorney's fee for performing the following services, based on the time and labor required, the complexity of the case, and the experience and ability of the appointed counsel:

- (1) time spent in court making an appearance on behalf of the defendant as evidenced by a docket entry, time spent in trial, and time spent in a proceeding in which sworn oral testimony is elicited;
- (2) reasonable and necessary time spent out of court on the case, supported by any documentation that the court requires;
- (3) preparation of an appellate brief and preparation and presentation of oral argument to a court of appeals or the Court of Criminal Appeals; and
- (4) preparation of a motion for rehearing.

(b) All payments made under this article shall be paid in accordance with a schedule of fees adopted by formal action of the judges of the county courts, statutory county courts, and district courts trying criminal cases in each county. On adoption of a schedule of fees as provided by this subsection, a copy of the schedule shall be sent to the commissioners court of the county.

(c) Each fee schedule adopted shall state reasonable fixed rates or minimum and maximum hourly rates, taking into consideration reasonable and necessary overhead costs and the availability of qualified attorneys willing to accept the stated rates, and shall provide a form for the appointed counsel to itemize the types of services performed. No payment shall be made under this article until the form for itemizing the services performed is submitted to the judge presiding over the proceedings or, if the county operates a managed assigned counsel program under Article 26.047, to the director of the program, and until the judge or director, as applicable, approves the payment. If the judge or director disapproves the requested amount of payment, the judge or director shall make written findings stating the amount of payment that the judge or director approves and each reason for approving an amount different from the requested amount. An attorney whose request for payment is disapproved or is not otherwise acted on by the 60th day after the date the request for payment is submitted may appeal the disapproval or failure to act by filing a motion with the presiding judge of the administrative judicial region. On the filing of a motion, the presiding judge of the administrative judicial region shall review the disapproval of payment or failure to act and determine the appropriate amount of payment. In reviewing the disapproval or failure to act, the presiding judge of the administrative judicial region may conduct a hearing. Not later than the 45th day after the date an application for payment of a fee is submitted under this article, the commissioners court shall pay to the appointed counsel the amount that is approved by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial region and that is in accordance with the fee schedule for that county.

(d) A counsel in a non-capital case, other than an attorney with a public defender's office, appointed to represent a defendant under this code shall be reimbursed for reasonable and necessary expenses, including expenses for investigation and for mental health and other experts. Expenses incurred with prior court approval shall be reimbursed in the same manner provided for capital cases by Articles 26.052(f) and (g), and expenses incurred without prior court approval shall be reimbursed in the manner provided for capital cases by Article 26.052(h).

(e) A majority of the judges of the county courts and statutory county courts or the district courts, as appropriate, trying criminal cases in the county may remove an attorney from consideration for appointment if, after a hearing, it is shown that the attorney submitted a claim for legal services not performed by the attorney.

(f) All payments made under this article shall be paid from the general fund of the county in which the prosecution was instituted or habeas corpus hearing held and may be included as costs of court.

(g) If the court determines that a defendant has financial resources that enable him to offset in part or in whole the costs of the legal services provided, including any expenses and costs, the court shall order the defendant to pay during the pendency of the charges or, if convicted, as court costs the amount that it finds the defendant is able to pay.

(h) Reimbursement of expenses incurred for purposes of investigation or expert testimony may be paid directly to a private investigator licensed under Chapter 1702, Occupations Code, or to an expert witness in the manner designated by appointed counsel and approved by the court.

Amendment to (a), (c), and (d) effective Sept. 1, 2011 (HB 1754 §20).

Process for the Payment of Indigent Defense Expenditures

Once the attorney fee voucher has been approved by the presiding judge, it is submitted to accounts payable for payment processing. It is then coded by the County Treasurer's office to the appropriate budgeted line item. Claims for assigned counsel fees, investigation, experts, and other direct litigation expenditures are coded as follows:

County Court -	Attorney fees	010-426-419
	Experts	010-426-339
	Investigations	010-426-339
	Other direct costs	010-426-339
Juvenile Court -	Attorney fees	010-570-419
	Experts	010-570-339
	Investigations	010-570-339
	Other direct costs	010-570-339
District Court -	Attorney fees	010-435-419
	Experts	010-435-495
	Investigations	010-435-339
	Other direct costs	010-435-339

Each attorney fee voucher is coded appropriately and references the Cause Number. Once the fee voucher is coded in the County Treasurer's office, it is then submitted to the County Auditor's office for approval. The County Auditor's office will review the voucher to ensure that all signatures are evident on the fee voucher for the appropriate court and that the order for payment by the presiding judge is noted, signed and dated.

If a voucher does not calculate for the items that have been listed by the attorney (services of time or other items), it is remitted back to the presiding court for clarification and/or correction.

Once the auditor approves the voucher, it is entered into the system for approval by the Commissioners Court. Once approval is received by Commissioners Court, checks are issued and all checks and invoices are submitted to the auditor's office for a final review before mailing. This review is for the purpose of ensuring that vendor name, addresses, amounts, and coding are correct. If at this time it is determined that an error was made on an amount or on coding, the voucher is pulled and resubmitted for corrections and to Commissioners Court for approval.
